The United States responds to the Court's Order, dated 29 May 2012 as follows:

On 14 September 2012, the United States filed an ex parte motion requesting the Court consider the motion in camera and ex parte under MRE 505(g)(2) and to authorize redactions of portions of Department of State documents that are neither favorable to the accused and material to guilt or punishment, relevant and necessary for production under RCM 703(f), subject to production under the Court's Order dated 19 July 2012, nor "necessary to enable the accused to prepare for trial" under MRE 505(g)(2). The United States seeks to protect foreign government information and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States.

On 14 September 2012, the United States filed an ex parte motion requesting the Court consider the motion in camera and ex parte under MRE 505(g)(2) and to authorize a summary of information contained within Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) documents that is favorable to the accused and material to guilt or punishment. See Enclosure. The United States seeks to protect information relating to intelligence sources, methods, and activities, all within the national security interests of the United States.
